The London Gazette.

From Tuesday June 13. to Saturday June 16. 1713

Kenſington, June 13.

THE following Addreſs from the City of Rocheſter, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir John Leake, and William Cage, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council, Gentlemen, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the City of Rocheſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

THE many ſignal Victories wherewith Providence has bleſs'd Your Majeſty's Arms in the whole Courſe of the late, long and bloody War, have been the Subject of our former Congratulations; but we now beg leave to tender Your Majeſty the juſt Tribute of our humble Thanks, upon an Occaſion ſtill more Glorious to Your Majeſty, and more Happy to Your People, the Concluſion of a Safe and Honourable, an Advantageous and (if Human Prudence can make it ſuch) a Laſting Peace.

The many artful Contrivances which have been carried on by a Reſtleſs and Ungrateful Faction, to Obſtruct this great and neceſſary Work, have only ſerved to add to Your Triumphs, and to render Your Majeſty's Wiſdom in a Treaty of Peace as Admirable and Conſpicuous to the World, as the Power of Your Arms had been before in the Conduct of a War.

The Care that has been taken in Securing the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and the perfect Friendſhip there is between Your Majeſty and the Houſe of Hanover, cannot but fill the Hearts of all Honeſt Men with the utmoſt Joy, wherein as we of this City do ſincerely participate, ſo we ſhall always give that Illuſtrious Houſe the Beſt, and as we hope the moſt agreeable Proof of our Zeal for it, by our inviolable Loyalty to our preſent Sovereign, and a firm Adherence to the true Intereſts of our Happy Conſtitution both in Church and State.

And if, Madam, Your preſent Miniſters and Parliament have ſo juſtly endear'd themſelves to Your People, it is becauſe they have given us ſo many convincing Proofs, that Your Majeſty's Honour and the true Happineſs of their Country are neareſt their Hearts, and the ſole Aim of their Actions.

The Bleſſings of Your Auſpicious Reign are ſo many and great, that You have left Your Subjects very little more to Wiſh for on this ſide Heaven, but the Continuance of their preſent Happineſs, and of that ineſtimable Pledge of it, Your Own moſt Precious Life; for which we ſhall conſtantly put up our devouteſt Prayers to Heaven, and whenever there is Occaſion for the Guarranty of our Lives and Fortunes, they ſhall moſt chearfully be employ'd for Your Defence and Preſervation.

The following Addreſs from the Town and Borough of New Windſor, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Mr. Mayor of Windſor, attended by ſeveral of the Aldermen, and Charles Aldworth, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bayliffs and Burgeſſes, Miniſter, Gentlemen, and others the Inhabitants of the antient Town and Borough of New Windſor.

Moſt Gracious and Dread Sovereign!

WE have heard, with the utmoſt Tranſport of Joy and Gratitude, what You have been pleas'd to tell us with Pleaſure, that a Peace is concluded ſo much to the Advantage of Your own Subjects, that it will be in our own Power to repair what we have ſuffered by ſo long and burthenſome a War.

We now ſee the Throne ſhining in the fulneſs of Glory, Your Majeſty in the midſt of wiſe and faithful Counſellors, holding the Ballance of Power, and giving Law to Europe.

May the ſecret Whiſperers of Diſcontent and Jealouſie be for ever ſilent; and may there be no more impudent Libels nor ſeditious Pamphlets heard or read amongſt us.

May the daring Sons of miſtaken Honour be ſoon reſtrain'd in their impious Rage; and may there be no more Murdering each other in Your peaceful Realms.

But let every Man ſtudy to be quiet, and do his own Buſineſs, that Trade may be advanc'd, the Arts of Peace improv'd, and good Will towards Men extended over the Face of Your Dominions.

And ſince Your Majeſty has endeavour'd to make theſe Bleſſings our own, and to ſecure 'em to our Poſterity, by preſerving a perfect Friendſhip between Your Majeſty and the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, a Friendſhip founded upon mutual Intereſt, and ſo neceſſary to the preſervation of the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as it is ſettled, and the Proteſtant Religion, as it is eſtabliſhed by Law.

We beg leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we ſhall ever look upon ſuch, who ſhall make it a Merit to divide that Friendſhip, as upon thoſe Miſcreants and their Followers, who ſpilt the Royal Blood in the laſt Age, and would ſtop the Current of it in this; with one Heart and Voice, we beſeech Almighty GOD, that You may long, very long enjoy the Fruits of a peaceful and a proſperous Reign; and that that Sacred Blood may ſtill flow in the Veins of all ſucceeding Kings and Queens of Great Britain, till Crowns and Scepters ſhall be no more.

The following Addreſs from the City of Glaſgow, was Preſented to Her Majeſty by the Members for the ſaid City; being Introduced by his Grace the Duke of Argyle.

May

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Common-Council of the City of Glaſgow, for themſelves and in Name of the whole Incorporations and Community thereof.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE humbly beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty, upon your having given Peace to your Kingdoms.

Our late Enemies having, in your repeated Victories, ſo ſeverely felt the Force of your Arms, we never doubted of their willingneſs to receive their Peace from your Majeſty, whenever your Royal Clemency ſhould induce you to Grant it.

How happy were we, if Peace and War were ever to take place by the Dictates of your Royal Wiſdom; Plenty in the one, Victory in the other, and Liberty in both, would be the inſeparable, never-ceaſing Influences of your Reign: But ſince Humanity Interrupts our Wiſhes, ſince the Sovereign Lord of all has Decreed one Day to afflict theſe Nations with a fatal Inſtance of the Mortality of the Greateſt, the Beſt here on Earth, we are reduced, in Compaſſion to the Unfortunate who may Survive, and in behalf of our Poſterity, to have Recourſe to a Subſidiary Relief: This Your Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed your ſelf to confirm to us in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover. This Parliament has had the Happineſs to hear Your Majeſty declare from the Throne, That you would tranſmit the Conſtitution to Poſterity, by employing none but ſuch who are heartily for the Proteſtant Succeſſion in that Family; That no Perſon can be more truly concerned for the Intereſt of it than your ſelf, and that your chief Concern is, that the Proteſtant Religion, and the Laws and Liberties of theſe Nations may be continued to us, by ſecuring the Succeſſion as limited by Parliament.

Such Gracious Declarations muſt juſtly Condemn all thoſe as the worſt of your Subjects, who, from their Hatred of the happy Revolution, and their diſregard to the Proteſtant Religion, the Liberties of theſe Nations, and conſequently of all Europe, would Hope or Inſinuate the Succeſſion, as depending on Your Majeſty, to be precarious, they ought in Duty to know, that when our Queen has promiſed, She cannot but perform.

We think our ſelves obliged in all Humility, to offer our unfeigned Thanks for ſuch Your Majeſty's tender and provident Care of our Religion, our Laws and Liberties, a Bleſſing which falls as unmerited, as unwiſh'd for on thoſe, who not only upon theſe Occaſions of approaching your Royal Perſon, are wilfully unmindful of it themſelves, but preſume publickly to Reproach your moſt faithful Subjects for performing this important part of their Duty.

We have the deepeſt Senſe of Gratitude for Your Majeſty's frequent Aſſurances of your Royal Protection to the Church of Scotland as Eſtabliſh'd by Law; we obſerve the Rage and Malice of its Enemies with little Regard; for ſince ſo many of them impiouſly refuſe to offer up their Prayers for Your Majeſty and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, we cannot wonder at their want of Charity for the Miniſters of our Church, who have with ſuch Zeal and Unanimity ſo lately teſtified, by a ſolemn Act, their Loyalty to Your Majeſty, and their Averſion to the Pretender to your Crown.

It is our conſtant Prayer, That theſe Nations may long enjoy the Bleſſings of Your Majeſty's Reign, that we may late, very late, owe any new Allegiance; but that the Almighty, who out of his infinite Wiſdom and Goodneſs has hitherto preſerved Your Majeſty, may long continue his Providential Care of theſe Kingdoms by Bleſſing our Queen. We are, may it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal, moſt Dutiful, and moſt Obedient Subjects and Servants.

The following Addreſs from the Corporation of Reading, was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Dalby, Eſq; Recorder of the ſaid Town, and One of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Abingdon.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and ever loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of Your antient Corporation of Reading, in the County of Berks, are truly ſenſible, that we cannot ſufficiently Congratulate the happy and honourable Terms of Your Majeſty's Peace, now obtained by Your indefatigable Care, and ſurpaſſing Wiſdom, directed by Povidence, aſſiſted and concerted by Your able, faithful and well-choſen Miniſtry, for the general Good of Europe, and Your Majeſty's Allies; for the particular Benefit and Safety of Your own Subjects, in ſecuring the Proteſtant Religion and Succeſſion (in due time) in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, with whom ſo intire a Friendſhip is eſtabliſhed; and for our Commerce being put in a hopeful and flouriſhing Condition, in order to enrich Your People, after a moſt expenſive, bloody, and impoveriſhing War: Which Bleſſings and Advantages the more ſedately conſidered, will be the more conſpicuous and Glorious, and will ever more and more engage the Hearts of all Your Majeſty's truly loyal and well-diſpoſed Subjects, to pray for Your Majeſty's long and happy Reign over us: And give us leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that our ſincere Endeavours ſhall never be wanting (in any thing we can do) to ſhew our ſelves upon all Occaſions the moſt dutiful Subjects to the beſt of Queens; whom GOD long preſerve in Peace and Plenty for Your own ſake, and for the good and welfare of Great Britain.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of St. Ives, in the County of Cornwall, was ſent up by William Pendarvis, Eſq; and preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Lanſdowne.

To the QUEEN'S moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The loyal and dutiful Addreſs of the Mayor, Portrieve, Aldermen and Common Council, and all the Well-affected, being the major Part of the Borough of St. Ives, within Your ever loyal County of Cornwall.

MADAM!

WE have, with the utmoſt Pleaſure, read Your Majeſty's Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, whereby we are aſſured, that through the many Difficulties which aroſe, You have at laſt gain'd an honourable Peace, contrary to the Expectations of thoſe who prefer Fire and Sword, Devaſtations and Bloodſhed, before Peace and Quietneſs, Truth and Juſtice, Religion and Piety; all which, under Your Majeſty and the preſent Miniſtry, we enjoy. Nothing can more pleaſe us, than the entire Agreement between Your Majeſty and the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, notwithſtanding the Endeavours which have been made to divide You. Go on, great QUEEN, and may Your Endeavours be as ſucceſsful in making Peace for Your Neighbours abroad, as Your People are happy in that You have given them at home: May Your Reign be as long as its glorious, notwithſtanding the deſire of thoſe who ſtill retain their Damnable, Heretical, Schiſmatical, Republican Principles. But on all occaſions Your Majeſty may command

mand the Lives and Fortunes, and all that are near and dear to Your Majeſty's moſt obedient and moſt dutiful Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Camelford, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Bourchier Wrey, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Lanſdowne.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, and Freemen of the Borough of Camelford, in the County of Cornwall.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

AFTER the inexpreſſible Miſeries of a long, bloody, and expenſive War, we Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects preſume, in great Humility, to offer our Tribute of Praiſe, Joy and Acknowledgments for the ineſtimable Happineſs of an honourable Peace procured by Your Majeſty for Your People.

Your Majeſty hath not only thus Bleſſed us, in removing all Obſtacles by Your unparallel'd Wiſdom, and that of Your Faithful and Good Miniſtry; but You have alſo ſecured our Happineſs to Poſterity, in a Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

That Your Majeſty may long live, and that the Giver of Peace may Crown Your Majeſty's Reign with Peace and Happineſs, and return to Your Self the Bleſſing procured for Your People, are the ſincere and hearty Prayers of Your Majeſty's Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Town and Port of Hythe, was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Boteler, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, accompanied by Jacob Des Bouverie, Eſq; one of the Jurats of the ſaid Corporation, &c. being introduced by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Hythe, in the County of Kent.

Madam,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, do preſume, with the utmoſt Submiſſion, to Congratulate Your moſt Sacred Majeſty upon Your ſucceſsful Concluſion of a Peace, ſo glorious to Your Majeſty, and ſo beneficial in all its Parts to Your own Subjects, and for the Intereſt and Safety of Your Allies.

We are fully ſenſible of the great Difficulties and Obſtructions that have been ſtirred up both at home and abroad, by ungrateful and diſaffected Perſons, to prevent the accompliſhing this ſo great and good a Work; and therefore cannot ſufficiently admire Your Majeſty's Prudence and Conduct, and the Zeal and Firmneſs of Your Miniſtry, thro' the whole Proceeding. We likewiſe, with the height of Gratitude, obſerve Your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and Goodneſs, in the Care You have taken effectually to ſecure our Religion and Conſtitution to us and our Poſterity, in the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover. That Your Majeſty may Reign long over us, and enjoy this Peace with all other Bleſſings, are the ſincere Prayers, to Almighty GOD, of Your loyal and dutiful Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the County of Worceſter, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir John Pakington, Bart. and Samuel Pytts, Eſq; Knights of the Shire, accompanied with ſeveral other Gentlemen; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Plymouth, Cuſtos Rotulorum of the ſaid County.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and loyal Addreſs of the Nobility, High Sheriff, Clergy and Gentry of the County of Worceſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AFTER all the Diſtreſſes we have ſuffer'd, from a long and expenſive War, and after we have ſeen Your Majeſty's pious Deſigns of putting a Period to it, more than once fruſtrated by the Contrivances of thoſe who hop'd to compaſs their own ambitious Views by its continuance. We do, with unſpeakable Joy, beg leave to approach Your Royal Perſon with our unfeign'd Congratulations for the happy concluſion of the Peace.

The unreaſonable Obſtructions that have been laid in Your Majeſty's way, during the whole Courſe of this great Work, ſerve only to Illuſtrate Your Majeſty's Wiſdom, and the Courage and Conduct of Your Miniſtry in removing them; and as we make no doubt, but we ſhall ſoon perceive the great Care that hath been taken of the Intereſt of Your own People, by the Advancement of our Trade, and whatever elſe is valuable to us, ſo we cannot but admire Your Royal Goodneſs to all Your Allies, whom no Provocations could make Your Majeſty abandon, without giving them Time to adjuſt their ſeveral Pretenſions, and procuring for them a reaſonable Satisfaction.

The Glories and Felicities of Your Majeſty's Reign are inexpreſſible, and ſo are the Bleſſings Your People enjoy under the happy Influences of it, and the conſtant Aſſurances Your Majeſty is pleas'd to give us of ſecuring the Proteſtant Succeſſion as by Law Eſtabliſhed, are the cleareſt Proofs how great a Concern Your Majeſty is pleaſed to take of our Poſterity.

We ſhall never be wanting to make the utmoſt Returns we are capable of, for the innumerable Inſtances of Your Majeſty's Favour to us, and our greateſt Pleaſure will be, by the conſtant Practice of our Lives, to ſhew how truly ſenſible we are of living under the beſt and moſt gracious of Princes.

The following Addreſs from the Corporation of Great Torrington, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Nicholas Hooper, Kt. being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, Lord Steward of Her Majeſty's Houſhold.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of the Corporation of Great Torrington, in the County of Devon, and of the neighbouring Gentlemen there.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg leave humbly to Congratulate Your Majeſty on the concluſion of the Peace, ſo glorious to Your Majeſty and advantageous to Your Sub-

Subjects, that we cannot ſufficiently admire and praiſe the Wiſdom and Conduct of Your Majeſty and Miniſtry, in bringing this great Work to ſo happy a concluſion, notwithſtanding the mighty Oppoſition made againſt it, both at home and abroad.

We take this Opportunity alſo to expreſs our Joy and Satisfaction at our hearing from the Throne, the entire Union there is betwen Your Majeſty and the moſt Serene Houſe of Hanover; and we hope that the Factious and Diſcontented amongſt us, will never ſucceed in their wicked Deſigns of dividing Your Majeſty and that Houſe.

We cannot forbear likewiſe of expreſſing on this Occaſion, our Diſlike and Abhorrence of thoſe Blaſphemous and Scandalous Pamphlets that do run down Religion, and reflect on Your Majeſty and Miniſtry.

We conclude with Praying, that Your Majeſty may long Reign over us, and that Your Majeſty may, during the whole courſe of Your Reign, meet with Returns of Loyalty and Obedience from all Your People, ſuitable to the great Things You have done for them.

The following Addreſs from the Corporation of Orford, was Preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Edward Turner, and Clement Corrance, Elq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being Introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viſcount Bolingbroke, one of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Portmen, Chief Burgeſſes, and Freemen of Your ancient Corporation of Orford, in the County of Suffolk.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

THE laſt time we had the Honour to Approach Your Royal Preſence, was to return Your moſt Sacred Majeſty our moſt humble Thanks for Your great Condeſcenſion, in Communicating to Your Parliament Your Gracious Intentions of procuring a Peace for the Benefit of Europe: And now, Madam, we come with Congratulations as hearty and ſincere as can poſſibly be expreſſed, having found, to our great Comfort and Joy, the good Effect of Your ſo gracious Purpoſes, by this Happy and Glorious Peace which You have at laſt obtained for the good of Your Subjects in particular, and in general for all Your Allies, if they think fit to accept of it.

A Good ſo much the more welcome as unexpected, having met with ſuch great Difficulties abroad, procured in a great meaſure by ſome of Your own ungrateful Subjects at home, who were grown Fat by Robbing the Publick of Sums which ought to have been applied towards the War; and Reſty, becauſe they could not continue in their unjuſt and illegal Plunderings of the Nation, which they were very ſenſible a Peace would prevent.

And therefore a Peace muſt be doubly Welcome to all good Men, when it takes away the vaſt Expence the Nation was at in continuing the War, and ſo advantageouſly procures us our Trade and Commerce again, by which we may be enabled to heal the Wounds we have ſo long ſuffered under.

This ſo Glorious a Turn, moſt Gracious Sovereign, could not have been effected, but by Your conſummate Wiſdom, firmneſs and conſtant Reſolutions, with the indefatigable Care of Your Miniſtry, wherein You have not only provided for our preſent Eaſe and Quiet; but the good Conſequence, as we have reaſon to hope, will be of great Happineſs to our Poſterity, in ſecuring our Holy Religion and Monarchy it ſelf to after-Ages, in that good Agreement betwixt Your Majeſty and the moſt Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, which muſt rejoice all Honeſt and Loyal Men, though it diſpleaſes the Republicans and Commonwealth Men, who, we hope, by theſe means will be for ever deprived of Ability to diſturb theſe Nations for the future.

May Your Majeſty live long to ſee the Bleſſings You have procured us to Proſper; and that War abroad and Faction at home may never diſturb Your Quiet any more.

Theſe, Madam, are the moſt hearty Prayers (to Almighty GOD, by whom Kings Reign) of Your moſt ancient and faithful Corporation of Orford.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Berlin, June 10. N. S. Laſt Sunday the King dined in publick for the firſt time with ſeveral Privy-Counſellors and General Officers, as he did again the next Day with the Margraves, and the Miniſters of Great Britain, Muſcovy and Holland. On the 6th the Regiment of Kameke, which was formerly the Grenadier Guards, march'd out of this Town, and was quarter'd in ſeveral Villages in the Neighbourhood. On the 7th the King went to Weyſterhauſen, after having declared Monſieur Blaſpiel Preſident of the Regency of Cleves, which Employment became vacant by the Death of Monſieur van Reck. Monſieur Vireck and Monſieur Ilten are likewiſe appointed to be Counſellors of the ſaid Regency.

Frankfort, June 11. N. S. The Army of the Empire, which is encamp'd in the Black Foreſt, hath been lately reinforc'd by the arrival of the Troops from Italy, and thoſe from Hungary are likewiſe expected within a few Days. The French continue to Forage on each ſide of the Rhine, in order to deprive them of all Subſiſtance. Letters from Strasbourg bring an Account, that the French Troops from Flanders have join'd the Army commanded by Mareſchal Villars, and as their Artillery has paſs'd by Boſchweiller, it is not yet known whether their Deſign be upon Landau or Mayence. In the mean time they are encamp'd over againſt Germerſheim, Nieuſtadt, Frankendahl, and Worms, and will find it very difficult to croſs the Rhine, unleſs they force ſome of the Paſſes, which are all very well guarded.

Paris, June 16. N. S. The King hath appointed Cardinal Polignac to be Maſter of the Chapel at Verſailles. On the 10th Inſtant the Cardinal de Rohan took the Oath in the King's Preſence for the Employment of Great Almoner, and at the ſame time received the Order of the Holy Ghoſt. His Majeſty hath named Monſieur de Chateauneuf, formerly Ambaſſador at Conſtantinople tinople, to go in the ſame Character to the States-General. Letters from Alſatia bring an Account, that the Troops which were on the Sarre and the Moſelle, continue their march towards Landau, whither the Mareſchal de Beſons was gone before, in order to make the neceſſary Diſpoſitions for the Siege of that Place: However it is thought their deſign is only to Blockade it, till the Garriſon is obliged to ſurrender for want of Proviſions. Mareſchal Villar's Army hath been conſiderably reinforced by the arrival of new Troops, and the two Armies already amount to above One hundred thouſand Men, beſides a Body of Fifteen or Sixteen thouſand that is aſſembling at Briſac, in order to raiſe Contributions on that ſide, as the Garriſons of Metz and Saar Louis have done in the Country round about them. By which means our Forces are almoſt wholly ſubſiſted at the Expence of the Enemy's Country. It is reported, that the Regiments which remain in Flanders are to be reduced, and the Soldiers that are in a Condition to ſerve will be incorporated into other Regiments.

Utrecht, June 20. N. S. Monſieur Karick and Baron Malknecht, Miniſters of the Electors of Cologne and Bavaria, went from hence a few Days ago. Yeſterday Morning the Duke d'Oſſuna and the Marquis de Monteleone, Plenipotentiaries of his Catholick Majeſty, were in Conference with the Lord Privy-Seal, who afterwards entertained them at Dinner with ſeveral other Perſons of Diſtinction. Monſieur du Theil, late Secretary of the French Embaſſy here, is gone to the Hague to wait for the arrival of Monſieur de Chateauneuf, who is expected there very ſoon with the Character of Ambaſſador Extraordinary from the Moſt Chriſtian King to the States General. Monſieur Randwyk and Monſieur Kniphuyſen, two of the Plenipotentiaries of the States, are returned from the Hague, and were this Morning in Conference with the Lord Privy Seal, as were likewiſe the Miniſters of Portugal in the Afternoon.

Hague, June 21. N. S. The States of Holland aſſembled laſt Week upon the Affairs of their Province, and will continue their Seſſion till the 24th. It is believed they will conſent to regulate the Penſions of the Governors of the Barrier and other Towns, according to the Plan drawn up by the States General. On the 18th, Baron Malknecht, Plenipotentiary of the Elector of Bavaria to the Congreſs at Utrecht, came from thence, and had a Conference with the Grand Penſionary, after which he went to Rotterdam. Yeſterday Baron Bothmar was in Conference with the Earl of Strafford, as were likewiſe Monſieur Palmquiſt, Envoy of Sweden, and Monſieur Ahlfeldt, Envoy of Denmark, who continued together for ſeveral Hours. This Morning his Excellency went to the Chamber of Treeves to meet the Deputies of the States General, who deſired a Conference with him.

Sir Ambroſe Crowley, of London, Kt. and Alderman, gives notice, That whereas a Report hath induſtriouſly been ſpread abroad to blaſt and leſſen his Reputation, inſinuating, that there was a Statute or Extent taken or intended to be taken out againſt him; or, that he had fail'd in his Payments: This is to ſatisfie the World, that the ſaid Report is Falſe and Malicious, and that the ſaid Sir Ambroſe Crowley is not, nor hath by Bond for Cuſtoms or otherwiſe, ever been indebted to the Government, nor hath any Bill on him unpaid either Foreign or Inland; and that he is ready to ſatisfie all juſt Demands can be made on him; ſo that there hath not been the leaſt Pretence or Ground for ſuch a Scandal: And whoever ſhall diſcover any Perſon or Perſons of Credit, that have been the Authors and Contrivers of the ſaid Report, ſo as he or they ſhall be Convicted of the ſame, ſhall receive Fifty Pounds Reward, to be paid by Mr. Thomas Madockes at the Bank of England, London, upon ſuch Conviction.

Theſe are to give Notice to all ſuch Perſons as have given Credit to or Subſiſted any of the Invalid Out-Penſioners belonging to Her Majeſty's Royal Hoſpital at Chelſea, either in Quarters or otherways, that they do not, on any Pretence whatſoever, continue to Credit or Subſiſt the ſaid Penſioners, or any of them, after the 24th of this Inſtant June, till farther Directions be given in the Gazette thereupon, there being a new Regulation of Rewards made to the Penſioners, and ſeveral of them to be diſmiſt the Penſion from that time.

By Order of the Lords and others Commiſſioners of the Hoſpital,

James Duke Criſpe.

Admiralty-Office, June 11, 1713.

The Rt. Hon. the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty having ſome time ſince ordered the ſeveral diſabled Seamen undermentioned to be Entertained in Her Majeſty's Royal Hoſpital at Greenwich as Penſioners; but they having not yet made their Appearance at the ſaid Hoſpital, their Lordſhips are pleaſed to give Notice, that if they do not apply themſelves to Sir William Gifford, Knt. Governor of the aforeſaid Hoſpital, within three Weeks after the Date hereof, other diſabled Seamen will be Entertained there in their Rooms.

The Court of Directors of the South-Sea Company give Notice, That a General Court of the ſaid Company will be held at Merchant-Taylors Hall in Threadneedle ſtreet, London, on Thurſday the 18*th Inſtant, at* 10 of the Clock in the Forenoon, upon Special Affairs: And that the Transferr Books of the ſaid Company will be ſhut from Tueſday the 23*d Inſtant, to Monday the* 3*d of Auguſt next, in order to make out the Dividend Warrants for*

Subjects, that we cannot ſufficiently admire and praiſe the Wiſdom and Conduct of Your Majeſty and Miniſtry, in bringing this great Work to ſo happy a concluſion, notwithſtanding the mighty Oppoſition made againſt it, both at home and abroad.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Portmen, Chief Burgeſſes, and Freemen of Your ancient Corporation of Orford, in the County of Suffolk.

A Good ſo much the more welcome as unexpected, having met with ſuch great Difficulties abroad, procured in a great meaſure by ſome of Your own ungrateful Subjects at home, who were grown Fat by Robbing the Publick of Sums which ought to have been applied towards the War; and Reſty, becauſe they could not continue in their unjuſt and illegal Plunderings of the Nation, which they were very ſenſible a Peace would prevent.

And therefore a Peace muſt be doubly Welcome to all good Men, when it takes away the vaſt Expence the Nation was at in continuing the War, and ſo advantageouſly procures us our Trade and Commerce again, by which we may be enabled to heal the Wounds we have ſo long ſuffered under.

This ſo Glorious a Turn, moſt Gracious Sovereign, could not have been effected, but by Your conſummate Wiſdom, firmneſs and conſtant Reſolutions, with the indefatigable Care of Your Miniſtry, wherein You have not only provided for our preſent Eaſe and Quiet; but the good Conſequence, as we have reaſon to hope, will be of great Happineſs to our Poſterity, in ſecuring our Holy Religion and Monarchy it ſelf to after-Ages, in that good Agreement betwixt Your Majeſty and the moſt Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, which muſt rejoice all Honeſt and Loyal Men, though it diſpleaſes the Republicans and Commonwealth Men, who, we hope, by theſe means will be for ever deprived of Ability to diſturb theſe Nations for the future.

May Your Majeſty live long to ſee the Bleſſings You have procured us to Proſper; and that War abroad and Faction at home may never diſturb Your Quiet any more.

Theſe, Madam, are the moſt hearty Prayers (to Almighty GOD, by whom Kings Reign) of Your moſt ancient and faithful Corporation of Orford.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Berlin, June 10. N. S. Laſt Sunday the King dined in publick for the firſt time with ſeveral Privy-Counſellors and General Officers, as he did again the next Day with the Margraves, and the Miniſters of Great Britain, Muſcovy and Holland. On the 6th the Regiment of Kameke, which was formerly the Grenadier Guards, march'd out of this Town, and was quarter'd in ſeveral Villages in the Neighbourhood. On the 7th the King went to Weyſterhauſen, after having declared Monſieur Blaſpiel Preſident of the Regency of Cleves, which Employment became vacant by the Death of Monſieur van Reck. Monſieur Vireck and Monſieur Ilten are likewiſe appointed to be Counſellors of the ſaid Regency.

Frankfort, June 11. N. S. The Army of the Empire, which is encamp'd in the Black Foreſt, hath been lately reinforc'd by the arrival of the Troops from Italy, and thoſe from Hungary are likewiſe expected within a few Days. The French continue to Forage on each ſide of the Rhine, in order to deprive them of all Subſiſtance. Letters from Strasbourg bring an Account, that the French Troops from Flanders have join'd the Army commanded by Mareſchal Villars, and as their Artillery has paſs'd by Boſchweiller, it is not yet known whether their Deſign be upon Landau or Mayence. In the mean time they are encamp'd over againſt Germerſheim, Nieuſtadt, Frankendahl, and Worms, and will find it very difficult to croſs the Rhine, unleſs they force ſome of the Paſſes, which are all very well guarded.

Paris, June 16. N. S. The King hath appointed Cardinal Polignac to be Maſter of the Chapel at Verſailles. On the 10th Inſtant the Cardinal de Rohan took the Oath in the King's Preſence for the Employment of Great Almoner, and at the ſame time received the Order of the Holy Ghoſt. His Majeſty hath named Monſieur de Chateauneuf, formerly Ambaſſador at Conſtantinople

tinople, to go in the ſame Character to the States-General. Letters from Alſatia bring an Account, that the Troops which were on the Sarre and the Moſelle, continue their march towards Landau, whither the Mareſchal de Beſons was gone before, in order to make the neceſſary Diſpoſitions for the Siege of that Place: However it is thought their deſign is only to Blockade it, till the Garriſon is obliged to ſurrender for want of Proviſions. Mareſchal Villar's Army hath been conſiderably reinforced by the arrival of new Troops, and the two Armies already amount to above One hundred thouſand Men, beſides a Body of Fifteen or Sixteen thouſand that is aſſembling at Briſac, in order to raiſe Contributions on that ſide, as the Garriſons of Metz and Saar Louis have done in the Country round about them. By which means our Forces are almoſt wholly ſubſiſted at the Expence of the Enemy's Country. It is reported, that the Regiments which remain in Flanders are to be reduced, and the Soldiers that are in a Condition to ſerve will be incorporated into other Regiments.

Utrecht, June 20. N. S. Monſieur Karick and Baron Malknecht, Miniſters of the Electors of Cologne and Bavaria, went from hence a few Days ago. Yeſterday Morning the Duke d'Oſſuna and the Marquis de Monteleone, Plenipotentiaries of his Catholick Majeſty, were in Conference with the Lord Privy-Seal, who afterwards entertained them at Dinner with ſeveral other Perſons of Diſtinction. Monſieur du Theil, late Secretary of the French Embaſſy here, is gone to the Hague to wait for the arrival of Monſieur de Chateauneuf, who is expected there very ſoon with the Character of Ambaſſador Extraordinary from the Moſt Chriſtian King to the States General. Monſieur Randwyk and Monſieur Kniphuyſen, two of the Plenipotentiaries of the States, are returned from the Hague, and were this Morning in Conference with the Lord Privy Seal, as were likewiſe the Miniſters of Portugal in the Afternoon.

Hague, June 21. N. S. The States of Holland aſſembled laſt Week upon the Affairs of their Province, and will continue their Seſſion till the 24th. It is believed they will conſent to regulate the Penſions of the Governors of the Barrier and other Towns, according to the Plan drawn up by the States General. On the 18th, Baron Malknecht, Plenipotentiary of the Elector of Bavaria to the Congreſs at Utrecht, came from thence, and had a Conference with the Grand Penſionary, after which he went to Rotterdam. Yeſterday Baron Bothmar was in Conference with the Earl of Strafford, as were likewiſe Monſieur Palmquiſt, Envoy of Sweden, and Monſieur Ahlfeldt, Envoy of Denmark, who continued together for ſeveral Hours. This Morning his Excellency went to the Chamber of Treeves to meet the Deputies of the States General, who deſired a Conference with him.
